Read twice, and ordered to be engrossed, and read the third time to-morrow.

Mr. CAMPBELL P. WHITE, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported the following bill:

A BILL

To authorize the President of the United States to exchange certain lands belonging to the Navy Yard at Brooklyn, for other lands contiguous thereto.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2       of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That 3       the President of the United States be, and he is hereby author-
4       ized, to execute a conveyance to the Corporation of the village 5       of Brooklyn, in the State of New York, of the interest of the 6       United States in certain lands forming a part of the navy yard 7       at said village of Brooklyn, and designated in a petition from 8       said Corporation to Congress, on condition that said Corpora-9       tion convey a good title to the United States of such other 10      property contiguous to said yard, and obtain releases to the 11      United States of certain parts of said yard now in controversy;
12      so that, in his opinion, the conveyances from said Corporation
13      shall be equally beneficial to the United States as the proper-14      ty granted to said Corporation.
